

Day 38

I do NOT want your Bellringer from last week. Keep these in your binders and begin a new page.

Use context clues to determine the meaning of the underlined word.

1. Only a prima Donna would demand that all the green M&Ms be removed from the boxes in her dressing room.

Circle the adjectives in the following sentences.

2. Dan's new hat blew down the man's stairway.
3. Stormy spring weather can cause many flash floods.

Who's or Whose?

4. Is he the guy _____ tie was red?
5. _____ that guy in the red tie?

Day 39

Use context clues to determine the meaning of the underlined word.

1. My friend's husband likes avant-garde architecture, while she prefers a more traditional style of building.

Circle the adjectives in the following sentences.

2. Pam's new suitcase was ready for the Canadian trip.
3. December winds can make a dangerous Christmas trip.

Who's or Whose?

4. _____ the actress in Out of Africa?
5. _____ PC is this?

Day 40

Use context clues to determine the meaning of the underlined word.

1. By having more Democrats win Congressional races than Republicans, the status quo was thrown off balance.

Circle the adjectives in the following sentences.

2. The soaking rain caused much damage.
3. The broken dish cut the crying girl.

Your or You're?

4. "_____ not serious!" exclaimed Martha.
5. "Of course not! There's no way _____ mom would let us!" replied Sarah.

Day 41

Use context clues to determine the meaning of the underlined word.

1. Foreign lyrics are no obstacle to understanding the passionate joie de vivre he conveys in each phrase.

Write the comparative and superlative forms of each adjective below.

2. friendly
3. happy

Capitol or Capital?

4. Cherry has spent 28 years at the _____ as a lawmaker and lieutenant governor.
5. The _____ of Tennessee is Nashville.

Day 42

Use context clues to determine the meaning of the underlined word.

1. Each state's Business Corporation Act gives businesses the authority to engage in any lawful business activity, carte blanche.

Write the comparative and superlative forms of each adjective below.

2. dim
3. honest

Capitol or Capital?

4. The dome of the United States _____ may well be the most famous man-made landmark in America.
5. If lying were a _____ crime, the hangman would work overtime.