

Explanatory Essay

Due: _____

Read “from The Sunflower” page 149 in Night

Prompt

Write an expository essay in which you infer how the mother would have reacted to Karl's last moments by analyzing her character in “The Sunflower”. Summarize what we know about the mother’s character and how that contributes to your thoughts on her reaction to Karl’s last moments. Use evidence from the text to analyze what is said explicitly as well as what is implied.

Requirements: Essays must be at a minimum 500 words. They must be typed, using Times New Roman or Calibri size 12 font. Name, date, and block must appear in the top right hand corner, and the essay must be double spaced. Points will be deducted if the format requirement is not met. Use the rubric on the back of this paper to help guide your writing.
