

Directions: After reading "The Dream Comes True" answer the following questions in complete sentences. (Note: You will only receive full credit for complete sentences. Words like "becuz", "u", and other slang terms will cause a point reduction.)

1. In the opening paragraph, what problem does Norgay describe that makes the climb more difficult than they expected?

2. INFER: Edmund Hillary hired Tenzing Norgay as his guide. But on page 40, at the end of the second paragraph, Norgay says "We were partners." What does this imply about Norgay's point of view about the expedition?

3. Find 3 other examples at the beginning or end of sentences that give you hints about Norgay's perspective.

4. INFER: Do you think Norgay and Hillary feel differently about who is the leader? How do you think each feels?

5. What is the mood of the story so far?

6. Identify a fact and an opinion in the paragraph that begins "I have thought."

7. Do you think you would agree with Norgay's opinions about the climb if you were there? Why or why not?

8. What is Norgay's opinion of people who wanted to know which man got to the summit first?

9. STOP, THINK, SUMMARIZE: At the end of the first page, STOP reading and think about what has happened so far. Write a paragraph summary. Include basic facts (main idea) about what has happened so far. Include your own opinion about the expedition. Compare it to some of your own goals. (This question is worth 20 points.)
10. Which man did actually reach the summit first?
11. Thinking about how difficult the expedition was, do you think it matters who was first? Would either man have made it without the other? Use examples from the passage to support your opinion.
12. From the article, clarify in your own words Norgay's feelings about the controversy of who was first.
13. INFER: What do you think is most important to Norgay about the story of the expedition? Support your answer in your own words.
14. What did Hillary and Norgay do when they reached the summit?
15. VISUAL SUMMARY: On a sheet of paper attached, make a drawing of Everest and use it to show the development, climax, and resolution of the story. Show where along the route each of the obstacles occurs. (This is worth 20 points.)
